

PLAN DINNER . . . Al Egnatuk, Mrs. Vincent Tremblay, William Fuller, Jack Held, Loren Mack, Mrs. Salvatore Dragotto, and Mrs. James Bemis are shown here making final plans for the "Last Round-Up" steak dinner to be held at St. Catherine Laboure Catholic Church Sunday. The dinner will be served from 1 to 7 p.m. at the church.

St. Catherine Laboure Slates 'Last Round-up'

St. Catherine Laboure Catholic Church will hold its "Last Round-up" Sunday afternoon at the church.

The men of the Holy Name Society and members of the Women's Council have planned a steak dinner for the afternoon. The dinner will be served at a cost of $1.50 per person, with a special child's plate available for 75 cents.

William Fuller and Mrs. Salvatore Dragotto are chairmen of the event, while Al Egnatuk will be the chief chef.

Several booths will be open as church members hold the last big event scheduled before the razing of the parish hall. A new hall will be under construction before the end of the year.

Mrs. Stanley Gallwas and Mrs. Ed Martin will be in charge of the fancy work booth, while the fish pond will be under the charge of Mrs. Charles Glomboskie and Mrs. Donald Croxen.

Mrs. Wayne Alldredge and Mrs. Gerry Sullivan will head the cake walk, and Larry Kuhn, Ed Price, Jesse Frey, and Jack Held will supervise the water throw, gold mine, and horse race events.

The Last Round-up will be staged on the church grounds from 1 to 7 p.m.

Former AFS Student Will Attend Cal Tech

Gabriele S. Horetti of Turin, Italy, has enrolled as a freshman at the California Institute of Technology.

Horetti is a former Torrance High exchange student. He stayed with the W. A. Herrmann family while attending Torrance High, and now spends his weekends with the Herrmanns.

He is a graduate of the Collegio S. Giuseppe in Italy.

Kenneth D. Florer, seaman apprentice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Huber D. Florer of 2336 West 229th Place, departed Long Beach, Sept. 28, aboard the ocean minesweeper USS Pivot for duty with the Seventh Fleet in the Far East.

'All the Way Home' Selected For South High Senior Play

"All the Way Home," the 1961 Pulitzer Prize-winning play, has been selected for the South High senior class play this year. The play was adapted by Tad Mosel from the novel, "A Death in the Family," by James Agee. The book also was a Pulitzer Prize winner.

Tryouts for the production were held during the second week of school. The cast is rehearsing for a Dec. 3 opening.

Carol Lee and Mike Renz share the lead roles of a soon-to-be-widowed wife and her husband. Other cast members include Robert Felle, Cindi Warp, Melinda Priest, Robert Strayhan, Linda Barnes, Stephen Armour, Donald Stolley, Carole Bonnete, Robbie Smith, Sherrie Schneider, and Nancy Costa.

The play will be presented Dec. 3, 4, and 5. Ronald Childers is the faculty director for the production.

South Grad at Baptist College

Mrs. Janice Lou Aycoc, graduate of South High School, has enrolled as a freshman at California Baptist College in Riverside. Mrs. Aycoc's high school activities included a Girls League scholarship, member of student council and Order of Althenas.

Pop Warner Clubs Aided By Optimists

Fred Peterson, president of the Torrance Pop Warner Football Association, discussed organization and activities of the Pop Warner Association with members of the Torrance Optimist Club last week.

Peterson, a football coach at West High, discussed safety measures and age limits for participating in the leagues.

Clifford M. Trezise, president of the Optimist Club, presented a check to Peterson. The Optimist Club annually donates part of their youth activities budget to the Pop Warner Association.

The Optimist Club will meet at the home of R. L. Swigart for a steak fry tomorrow evening.

First Unit Of School Completed

Construction of the first phase of the Seventh-day Adventist South Bay Junior Academy in Torrance has been completed.

Located at 4400 W. Del Amo Blvd., the academy is a project of the Adventist churches in Torrance, Gardena, Hawthorne, Redondo Beach, Wilmington, and San Pedro. Enrollment for the 10-grade school is now 140 students.

The construction program is supervised by a committee which is headed by Albion Hoff, San Pedro, pastor. Others on the committee are: Aldin Young, D.D.S., Torrance; Hugh Sterling, Hawthorne; Gerald Pierce, Redondo Beach; Ozie Emmanuel, Torrance, and Mrs. Don Moshos, Rolling Hills.

Much of the work on the six-classroom building was done by members of the participating churches on a volunteer basis. The first building is one of six planned for the 10-acre site.

Ground will be broken for a second classroom unit early next year.

Proposition 14 Topic for Meeting at Walteria Church

The League of Women Voters will sponsor a discussion of Proposition 14 at the Walteria Methodist Church, 3646 Newton St., Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

Proposition 14 would nullify the Rumford Housing Law and prohibit the State Legislature from enacting new laws in the same field if approved by the voters.

Chadwick Boys

Win Recognition

Two students at Chadwick School in Rolling Hills have been named semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship competition, according to headmaster Pierson P. Melcher.

The two students are William E. Gallas and Allan H. Trimpi.

Members of the League will present both the pro and con arguments and answer questions on the proposition.

Sunday, Oct. 25, a second meeting will cover other measures being submitted to the voters on the November ballot.

Babysitting will be provided and refreshments will be served. The meeting is open to the public.
